The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 11. to Saturday July 15. 1732.

Hanover, July 19, N S.

ON the 15th Instant, about Eight in the Morning, the King, accompanied by his Highness Prince George of Hesse, Prince Nassau Siegen, and Count d'Altenbourg, with the Lords of the Regency, the Right Honourable the Lord Harrington, the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and several other Persons of Distinction, went to the Plain called the Burghers Common, and reviewed three Regiments of Dragoons, consisting of Four Squadrons each, and each Squadron of 174 Men, Officers included, commanded by Major General Pontpieten, Brigadiers Werdt's and Lowen. The King passed along the Front of the Line and through the Ranks, and having placed himself in the Center, they marched from the Right by Troops, and halted in that Order when they came to the Center, and then ranked off, being called over Man by Man before his Majesty: they marched up to their former Ground, and as soon as the Line was formed, they went through all the Evolutions on Horseback: And afterwards Six Squadrons being drawn up, so as to front the remaining Six, they charged each other several Times, and marched off by Squadrons and formed the Line: and a Signal being given, they dismounted, and having linked their Horses and formed into Battallions, they performed first the Manual Exercise, and then went through their several Firings, &c. After which they returned to their Horses, remounted, and then marched by his Majesty again by Fours on Horseback. His Majesty left the Field about Five in the Afternoon, and was saluted by the Artillery. On the 16th his Majesty reviewed the two Regiments of Horse, viz. Launay's, commonly called the Leib Regiment, and Hasberg's. These two Regiments performed their Exercise both on Horseback and on Foot, and after they had passed by the King on Foot, they remounted and marched off before his Majesty in Squadrons. The 17th, his Majesty reviewed four Regiments of Foot, viz. Sommerfeld's, Druchtleben's, Schuaan's, and Wurm's; and Yesterday four other Regiments, viz. Lieutenant-General Melville's, Major-General Kampen's, and Colonels Zastrow's and Behr's: And this Morning the Review finished with the two Regiments of Colonels Finck and Von Quernheim. His Majesty has been pleased to express his entire Satisfaction with the fine Appearance the several Regiments have made, and also with the great Exactness and Regularity of the Performance of their Exercise, Evolutions, and Firings.

Navy-Office, July 14, 1732.

The Rt Hon. the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury having appointed Money for paying of Half Pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st of January, 1731, to the 30th of June last, according to his late Majesty's Establishment on that Behalf; These are to give Notice, that the said Payment will begin to be made at the Treasurer of the Navy's Office in Broad-street, at Nine a-Clock in the Morning, the following Days, viz. on Thursday the 3d of August next for the Captains, Friday the 4th for the Lieutenants, and Saturday the 5th for the Masters and Surgeons. That all Persons concerned may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and not only bring with them the Affidavit required, touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any publick Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid the said Half Pay, but also produce Certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths required by Act of Parliament to his present Majesty; and in Case any of the said Officers shall not be able to attend themselves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpose, that the said Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by.
